Indemnity Agreement Regarding a Lost, Stolen, or Destroyed Check

I understand that if this claim is honored, the funds will be deposited into the account from which the check was originally purchased to process a replacement check. If the account is closed, the account may be reopened to fulfill this request and then will be reclosed.

I further understand that if this claim is paid and the check is presented for payment within 90 days of the check issuance date, Navy Federal Credit Union is obliged to honor the check and I am obliged to refund the payment to Navy Federal.

If the check is presented for payment by a holder in due course after 90 days from the check issuance date, I am obliged to either refund the payment to Navy Federal if the check is honored or pay the amount of the check to the person having rights of a holder in due course if the check is dishonored.

In any of these circumstances, I agree to reimburse Navy Federal for all expenses or costs it incurs as a result of not honoring the check or as a result of my lack of prompt reimbursement of the payment to Navy Federal if the check is honored.

Notice of Claim: Neither you nor Navy Federal may commence, join, or be joined to any judicial action (as either an individual litigant or the member of a class) that arises from the other party's actions pursuant to this Agreement or that alleges that the other party has breached any provision of, this Agreement, until such party has notified the other party of such alleged breach and afforded the other party a reasonable period after the giving of such notice to take corrective action.
